EMERGENCY CONTACT INFORMATION

Please note that we are including with this newsletter a request for emergency contact information from each of our clients. Please fill this out and mail, fax, e-mail or call the office with this information. Lately, when we try to reach clients, we have noticed that the contact information is outdated and we have no way to reach our own client. Often, people move or change their phone numbers and forget to notify their attorney. That is why it would be helpful if we had a family member or friend we could contact if we need to reach our client.

If you are on automatic check withdrawal (ACH) for your monthly payments and you change your bank information, please call Gaby in the billing department (800-992-3275 ext. 1501) and give her your new bank information. If we withdraw the funds and the account is closed, not only will your bank charge you, but it incurs extra work for us. Then we will have no choice but to charge you a fee.

Web Site Offers Discounts Just for Seniors

Do you Sciddy? If not, you should. If you do, you know you're getting the best deals and discounts available for seniors. Sciddy is a new web site launched just this year by digital publishing company Dirxion.

Sciddy users can browse the web site for deals and discounts on shopping, dining, travel, automotive, pet supplies, education and more, exclusively for the 55-plus set. Users can search by type of business or location, and there's no need to pay in advance like with similar discount sites such as Groupon, LivingSocial and YouSwoop. Sciddy is free; you only pay when you use your coupon to make your purchase.

With thousands of national companies listing their discounts with Sciddy, the company has found a way to tap into the increased buying power of older adults, especially since the more computer-savvy Boomers are beginning to turn 65. Why pay full price for goods and services when you can Sciddy!
